József Cardinal Mindszenty

Bibliography on Cardinal Mindszenty (1892–1975)

Compiled by Joseph Széplaki¹

It was realized by the compiler that there is no bibliographical documentation in existence on Cardinal Mindszenty. For that very reason, this bibliography was compiled as a pilot project. The compiler hopes that in the future, after some years of research, a comprehensive bibliography will be published on Cardinal Mindszenty.

This bibliography consists of 64 books, 329 articles, 4 newsletters, 7 films, slides and records, and 3 miscellaneous items; all totaled, 347 entries.

¹ J. Széplaki is Assistant Prof, and Head of Acquisition Div. at Minnesota Univ. Library.

VI. Supplement

Note: This bibliographical data was received immediately before printing by the compiler. All of these entries were authored by László FEKETEKUTY, however, they may have appeared under one of several pseudonyms (Spektator, Spectator, Hungaricus) or anonymous. Due to lack of time for verification, the entries do not comply with official forms of bibliographical research, nevertheless, the compiler feels that they still are of bibliographical value. In future editions, the entries will be more thoroughly researched.

About the Compiler

The compiler of this pamphlet is a librarian and a bibliographer. Born and educated in Hungary, he came to the United States after the Hungarian Revolution of 1956. Since then he has been employed in various professional positions in the libraries of Brandeis University, Information Dynamic Corporation – Library Systems and Services Division, Ohio University, and University of Minnesota. He is also a consultant for the Hungarian collection of the Immigration History Research Center at University of Minnesota.

He has compiled several other short bibliographies on Hungarian related subjects. Among these are Béla Bartók, Louis Kossuth, the Hungarian Revolution of 1956, and also related to Hungary, American doctoral dissertations, and educational motion pictures and filmstrips.

In addition, he has authored several major reference works, including bibliographies, such as The Hungarians in America, 1583–1974 (1975), Louis Kossuth: “The Nation’s Guest” (1976), Hungarians in the United States and Canada, Holdings of the Immigration History Research Center (1977).
